Go Wolfpack!

Welcome to the 114th Thanksgiving Day Game between Boston Latin School's Wolfpack and Boston English High School's Bulldogs, the oldest continuous high school rivalry in the nation.

*We dedicate this game to the memory of John Jessayan, who proudly
wore #40, always with a smile.*

For Head Coach Paul Costello, today's game marks the close of 30 years of dedication to BLS student athletes.

"Thanks, Coach, and all the best. You will be missed."

The BLS Gridiron Club appreciates the contributions of Coaches John McDonough, Jack Morris, Carlos Nieves, Joe Laudano, and Chris
Farrell; the support of Step Squad Advisor Rachel Skerritt, and Football Band Director Paul Pitts. Special thanks to Mary Alice Hantout on the occasion of her last game guiding the cheerleaders.

From the BLS Gridiron Club – Please join the Club next season.

Dear Students, Parents, Alumni and Friends:

Every Thanksgiving provides us the opportunity for families to come together, rekindle old friendships and renew the football rivalry between two of America's finest educational institutions, Boston Latin and the English High School.

As the new Headmaster of The English High School, America's oldest public high school, I am pleased to welcome you to what I hope will be another memorable experience of an English-Latin game.

This year, this game takes special significance as one of the long-time participants takes part in it for the last time after twenty-five years plus of dedicated and excellent service to the students of our city. I am pleased to join our students, staff and alumni in congratulating and wishing Coach Costello success in his retirement.

To Headmaster Kelly, staff, students and the football team, I congratulate you and wish you success. Congratulations to our team, Coach Parker and his assistants, for their enthusiasm, dedication, effort and success this year!

Happy Thanksgiving

- Mr. Duarte
Headmaster

Coach Paul Costello

Head Football Coach

Boston Latin School

1971 – 2000

The sixties, the seventies, the eighties and the nineties, where did the time go. It has been a great run. I have been truly blessed for I have had the greatest young people to work with, a large number of very dedicated and loyal assistant coaches, and three very supportive Headmasters, Dr. O'Leary, Mr. Contempasis, and Mrs. Kelley.

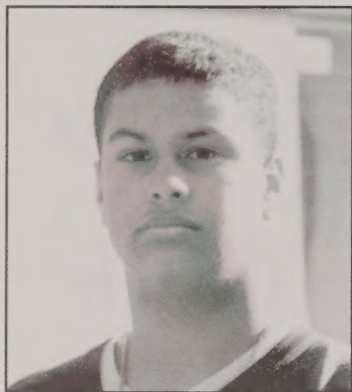

To all my players, former and present, I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for your efforts on the Gridiron and your dedication to Boston Latin School Football. But most of all I want to thank you for just being you – wonderful young people that have given a retiring coach a great legacy. You are all very special, and I am extremely proud of all that you have accomplished.

To Assistant Coach John McDonough, my deepest appreciation for your years of service, dedication, loyalty and all that you contribute to the program. I would like to thank Coach Keith Parker and the Boston English Football teams for their sportsmanship and all their efforts in maintaining the Latin-English game.

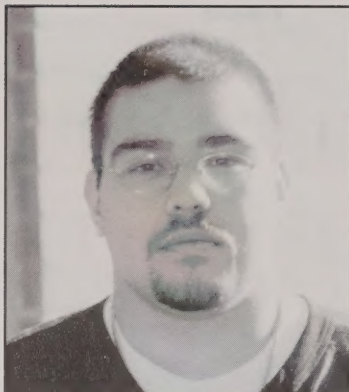

To all the cheerleaders, band members, and step squads over the years, thank you for your school spirit and support. It was greatly appreciated.

Many times, at the end of practice, I would say to my players, "In the Barn." This meant that you were my thoroughbreds and practice was over. Well, it's time for the old Coach to go "In the Barn." God Bless

LATIN FIGHT SONG

On the Field of Many Colors
Latin's banners fly Cheer on,
 cheer like volley thunder
Echoes to the sky

See the Latin team advancing Gaining more and more
So we'll fight, fight, fight
With all our might
Dear Old Latin evermore.

Headmaster's Statement

Each year the Latin/English rivalry sparks much discussion. We remember great plays, great players and great fans. This year there is a new Head Master at English High School, Jose Duarte, whose first words to me were, "English is going to beat Latin at the Thanksgiving game." I do not think he understands yet the intensity of battle and the legacy of competition. We shall wait and see! Best Wishes to Head Master Duarte and the English High School coaches and athletes.

My thanks to all who make the Latin athletic experience so special: the coaches, the team members, the cheerleaders, the step squad, the Gridiron Club, the parents, alums and fans who support all the best in athletics. The spirit continues because of your loyalty to BLS. Sumus Primi!

Today's Thanksgiving game is indeed a very special and somewhat sad occasion for me. Ever since I came to Boston Latin School, Coach Costello has been a fixture here as the Head Football Coach and the Athletic Director. Today marks his last Latin/English game; five decades of coaching. Well done and thank you, Coach! The Head Master Emeritus Michael Contompasis joins me in wishing Coach Costello all the best. He is surely a fine example of what the Latin School spirit is all about – "the nurturing of young people."
